➔ Northern Harford County includes White Hall, Pylesville, Whiteford, Street, Churchville & Darlington. An area of beautifully rolling hills, it is bordered by southern Pennsylvania and the Susquehanna River. This is Harford County's farm country, largely preserved for agriculture and home to a thriving thoroughbred breeding industry. Scenic landscapes of horse farms, rambling hills, and cheerful villages characterize scenic northern Harford.

➔ The communities of Joppa, Abingdon, Edgewood & Belcamp team with activity in the southern part of the county, offering proximity to I-95, MARC Train access and large retail centers. Along the U.S. 40 corridor, find outstanding golf courses, recreation centers, and state-of-the-art libraries.

➔ Bordered by Baltimore County, the communities of Monkton, Jarrettsville, Forest Hill, Fallston & Baldwin offer residents express access to urban amenities without compromising its suburban appeal.
