Message from Harford County Executive Barry Glassman

I am pleased to help connect you to the wealth of opportunities and services available from government agencies and nonprofit organizations outlined in this Community Resource Guide.

Within its pages, this guide offers something for everyone, including information on county libraries, parks, recreation programs and facilities; senior centers and services for seniors; services for children; crisis services and other resources for our neighbors in need, such as food pantries, clothing closets and shelters. I hope you will keep this valuable guide handy throughout the year.

In closing, please join me in thanking the many employees and volunteers who provide these services and programs to help all our citizens lead full and productive lives.

Barry Glassman, County Executive
