HOWARD COUNTY OFFERS WEDDING VENUES for EVERY TASTE

Howard County enchants and excites with a delightful mix of urban, suburban and rural attractions. The region that hosts such luminaries as the cast and crew of HBO's Veep and the countless stars who play at Merriweather Post Pavilion can also be a sublime setting for your dream wedding. Howard County is home to Columbia/Ellicott City and is consistently listed among the Top 10 "America's Best Places to Live" in Money magazine. Howard County has been featured as a great weekend getaway in the New York Times, The Washington Post and Southern Living. An affluent suburb of Baltimore and Washington, D.C. (the third wealthiest county in the U.S. according to the U.S. Census Bureau), it's a place where brides, grooms and their wedding guests will find lodging, shopping, dining and sight-seeing experiences that promise to be upscale, unexpected and unforgettable.

The lodging options include sophisticated resorts, lakeside hotels, posh B&Bs and family-friendly inns. If you're gift shopping for the wedding couple, you'll find everything their hearts and homes desire at The Mill, The Mall and Main Street. These shopping venues offer handmade and vintage finds that will surely be treasured forever. Locavores and foodies can dine on farm-to-table and dock-to-dish Maryland favorites, and find locally brewed beer and wonderful wine at establishments in all price ranges. Sightseeing in and around Howard County abounds. If there's any down time, consider a patriotic pilgrimage to the Nation's capital, Washington, D. C., or a visit to Annapolis, Maryland's picturesque state capital and gateway to the Chesapeake Bay. Howard County's own Ellicott City is a must-see in the mid-Atlantic, offering boutiques and bistros nestled above the Patapsco River. Historic Main Street is surrounded by charming steeples and interesting architecture, tempting visitors with its old world and bohemian charms.

Dream Wedding

Here are some suggestions
for the wedding of your dreams

REFINED RESORT

Conveniently located between Baltimore and Washington, D.C., Turf Valley is surrounded by breathtaking views of woodlands, gardens and golf greens. The family-owned and -operated business has been treating guests like one of the family for more than 35 years. The resort features four unique ballrooms, 1,000 manicured acres, outdoor ceremony space, on-site catering, 172 hotel rooms, a full-service spa, and Alexandra's American Fusion restaurant. Turf Valley will accommodate all of your needs for a beautiful wedding.

FREE-SPIRITED FUN

If you're looking for easy-going, DIY style, say "I do" to Howard County's rustic barns, stunning meadows, picturesque historic sites and serene forest settings. Vintage wedding dresses, handmade jewelry and retro tuxes can be found in old Ellicott City and historic Savage Mill. Local caterers and Maryland wine and local craft beer will bring the farm to your reception table. Cut your own flowers for the wedding party to carry, and to decorate the tables.

SECOND TIME AROUND

If you’re looking for a more mature setting, consider an intimate sunset gathering at Petit Louis on the Lake, followed by classic French bistro fare and buckets of champagne. Talk with the proprietors of the Columbia Inn at Peraylnna Manor or the Wayside Inn B&B to hire the entire property and gardens for your family and friends. The Elkridge Furnace Inn offers a serene ceremony by the river and a beautifully appointed manor house and tavern, complete with covered porches overlooking the perennial gardens. The delectable dinners of French-inspired entrées and desserts are a perfect way to begin your new life together.

MEMENTOS OF THE DAY

Find one-of-a-kind gifts and favors for your guests at Old Ellicott City’s locally-owned boutiques and art galleries. Sweet Elizabeth Jane, Shoemaker Country and Horse Spirit Arts Gallery all offer beautiful gifts. While you are there, be sure to explore Old Ellicott City’s fun vintage offerings. Head over to Historic Savage Mill, where you will find antiques dealers, fine crafts and jewelers. If you want to create personal mementos for your guests, sign up for beading, pottery, painting and crafting classes offered by Howard County Recreation and Parks and Howard Community College. Local bakeries and chocolatiers can concoct Maryland-inspired confections to fill tasteful and tasty goody bags. How about a commemorative wine of your own vintage from Tin Lizzie Wineworks, where you can really do it yourself – from grape-crushing to designing the label. Don’t forget to cellar some for your golden anniversary.

*Pedicures to ziplines, breweries to cosmos,
an insider's guide to venues for bachelor and bachelorette parties – and what to do with your out-of-town guests.*

Howard County may be your destination wedding away from it all, but you'll find it's in the heart of it all. The region offers plenty of options for adrenaline-rush adventures or lazy leisure for the wedding party and guests. Howard County is known for its lovely lakes and award-winning parks – connected by more than 100 miles of paved scenic trails, where you can meander past wildflowers, wildlife and even waterfalls. Home to the Patapsco Valley State Park, affectionately referred to as "Moab East" by mountain biking enthusiasts, Howard County is an oasis of eco-tourism activities in the Baltimore-Washington region. You'll find gravity-defying ziplines, horseback riding, two state-of-the-art Nature Centers for hands-on learning, and hot air balloon rides at sunrise or sunset. If you're itching to get out and play before or after the big day, consider mini-golf or batting cages, petting farms, driving ranges, skate-parks, swim centers and ice rinks. If you are craving a night out on the town, visit nearby casinos, enjoy a movie, or try some dance lessons. In warmer months, you can even enjoy the Bard under the stars thanks to the Chesapeake Shakespeare Company, or your favorite band at Merriweather Post Pavilion.

FOR FRIENDS & FAMILY

100-plus miles of paved stroller, wheelchair, bike and pet-friendly lakeside trails. Howard County's scenic trails are designed for hiking or biking along lovely lakes, over iconic bridges and past historic places. Especially beautiful at sunrise and at sunset, these outdoor spaces provide perfect opportunities to see wildflowers, waterfalls and even wildlife.

Columbia Association's indoor/outdoor swimming pools. The Columbia Association owns and operates 23 outdoor pools, and four indoor pools, all furnished with lounges, chairs, tables, umbrellas, restrooms, changing areas and gathering areas. Your friends and family will appreciate taking a dip, swimming some laps or lounging poolside.

Family Farms. Take a 'haycation' by picking your own fresh produce, petting baby animals, making your own wine, and experiencing hayrides, larger than life storybook characters, dinosaurs or a rodeo.

Eco-friendly Nature Centers. The Howard County Conservancy at Mt Pleasant Farm, with its 232 acres of rolling hills, is a perfect spot to learn about the Chesapeake Bay, hike, or participate in a star-gazing experience. The Robinson Nature Center offers interactive and multisensory exhibits, the NatureSphere digital planetarium and theater, a two-story "Life of the Forest" exhibit, a Children's Discovery Room, wildlife viewing areas and more.
